- B. Designation of an employee as eligible for reimbursement is not intended to recommend or discourage the purchase of a policy by an employee. Each employee must evaluate the risks related to him or her employment and compare the costs and benefits associated with such insurance.
- C. No employee of the court should endorse or recommend a policy offered by a company or association, but employees may provide information as to those insurers known to provide policies of this type to enable an employee to request information about the policies offered.

Definition of Professional Liability Insurance

Professional liability insurance is insurance that provides coverage for:

- A. Legal liability for damages due to injuries to other persons, damage to their property, or other damage or loss to such other persons (including the expenses of litigation and settlement) resulting from or arising out of any tortious act, error, or omission of the covered individual (whether common law, statutory or constitutional) while in the performance of such individual's duties as a qualified employee; and
- B. The cost of legal representation for the covered individual in connection with any administrative or judicial proceeding (including any investigation or disciplinary proceeding) relating to any act, error, or omission of the covered individual while in the performance of such individual's official duties as a qualified employee, and other legal costs and fees relating to such administrative or judicial proceeding.

Procedures for Claiming Reimbursement

Reimbursement request must be submitted to the Clerk of the District Court using the Professional Liability Insurance Reimbursement Program Form for Reimbursement Claim - (sample attached). Requests must be accompanied by a copy of the policy premium notice or statement of account showing the annual premium amount and the period covered by the policy. The request should indicate that the claim is being made pursuant to Pub. L. No. 104-208, § 636 (1996); as amended by Pub. L. No. 105-277, § 644 (1998); as amended by Pub. L. No. 106-58, § 542 (1999); Proceedings of the Judicial Conference of the United States (JCUS-SEP 99, pp. 66-67), and is in compliance with criteria established by the Judicial Conference and the Director of the Administrative Office.

Reimbursement will be made to the employee at the employee's current mailing address in
